

Professional Ethics Course For Engineers and Geologists

- Friday, May 4th, 2018; 10:00 AM to Noon
- Tech Center, UMD Center for Economic Development
- Address: 11 East Superior St, Suite 210
- Duluth, MN 55802

Pre-registration required with attached form
For information, contact: karl_everett@q.com
(underscore between karl_everett)
Home Office 218-724-3134

Who Should Attend

This course is designed for all engineers and geologists employed in the mining industry to provide education on ethics training intended to meet the continuing education requirements for professionals in the State of Minnesota.

Purpose

The purpose of this course is to provide ethics training for professional engineers and geologists. It is designed to maintain and improve skills and knowledge of profession ethics in work associated with the mining industry, geology and resource evaluations.

Learning Objectives

The learning objective of this course is for professional engineers and geologists to become familiar with rules, laws and ethics in the practice of their profession.

Cost

$60 per Person

Credit

2 Professional Development Hours (PDH)

Karl Everett is a Professional Engineer (MN) and Geologist (WI) and an approved MSHA Part 48 /46 surface and underground Health and Safety Instructor with KEA Associates with over 30 years of experience in the mining industry.